

Milan Dharmasthali School

Class: Three

Subject : Science

Topic: Foods and feeding habits of animals

Period: 7th

Specific objective: After completing the study of this unit, students will be able to: a. introduce herbivores, carnivores and omnivores with examples. b. identify the food of different animals. c. explain the feeding habits of herbivores, carnivores and omnivores.

Teaching materials: The animals that feed only on plants and plant products are called herbivores. Animals like cow, buffalo, sheep, goat, deer, elephant, rabbit, horse and giraffe are some examples of herbivores. It have sharp front teeth to bite plants and their parts.

The animals that feed only on flesh of other animals are called carnivores. Tiger, lion, leopard, hyena, wolf, snake, frog and crocodile are some examples of carnivores. It have sharp and pointed teeth to tear the flesh. These teeth are called canines.

The animals that feed on both plants and flesh of other animals are called omnivores. Human, cat, dog, bear, jackal, crow, and hen are examples of omnivores. It have sharp front teeth to bite plants.

Homework: Answer the following questions.

- a. Define herbivores with any five examples.
- b. Define carnivores with any five examples.
- c. What are omnivores ? Give any three examples.